GREAT BRITAIN'S BEST ATHLETES OF THE YEAR REVIEWED

Greig Back To Soccer

WILLIAM McAlpine Greig, the Police Recreation Club First Division soccer full-back and lawn bowls player, was born in Port of Glasgow in 1914 and is a cousin of Drysdale, the Glasgow Rangers player.

He was educated at Glasgow High School and played in the Juvenile, Junior and Senior Divisions of the School at left-back. On leaving school he continued to play soccer in the City League and represented Carnegie Athletic, the Gosrock High School Former Pupils and also played for the Port of Glasgow juniors. His experiences with these teams has given him a keener insight to the game than most followers of soccer in the Colony.

At the age of 18 he temporarily gave up soccer owing to a knee injury and joined the Hong Kong Police Force in 1934, and he again took up the game with their junior team the following year. This year he has played for the seniors, deputising at left-back in the absence of Chris Pile.

He only took up lawn bowls towards the end of last season, but made such gigantic strides in the sport that he secured a place in the First Division team as No. 1 to W. E. Hollands, one of the leading players in the senior division—no mean achievement!

Partnering W. Mair, the Police skip, he reached the semi-final round of the Colony Open Pairs championship in his first attempt in competitive sport!

EAST LANCES AND CLUB IN GOALLESS DRAW

Scrappy Hockey At King's Park

WALLACE AND BATES SHINE

A goalless draw was the result of the friendly hockey match between the Hong Kong Hockey Club and the East Lancashire Regiment junior teams at King's Park yesterday afternoon.

From start to finish the game was scrappy, none of the players displaying good form. Bond, the Club's left-winger, received no support from his colleagues and as a result only touched the ball a few times. Wallace, at right-back, played a safe game and cleared the ball with confidence, while Bates, the right-half, also played a second defensive game.

Sharples, the inside-left, was the pick of the East Lances attack, but he was unsupported. East Lances' scorers: Capt. Thatcher and R. Baughman; Morgan, Cawley and Lt. Harrison; Francis, Dickenson; Lt. Bain, Sharples and Lt. Russell.

H.K. Club: H. P. Shields; R. L. Wallace and P. Woodhouse; R. A. Bates, L. S. Thomas and N. Whaley; I. Tamworth, L. Blackie, Lt. Way, H. E. W. Taylor and V. C. Bond.

MANAK HOCKEY FIXTURES

The Radio Sports Club will meet the Royal Army Ordnance Corps in the "B" Division of the Manak Hockey Tournament at Caroline Hill to-day at 4 p.m. while tomorrow the Kowloon Infantry Battalion will encounter the Royal Corps of Signals in the same division.

STRONG NAVY TEAM ON VIEW TO-DAY

TWO GOOD SOCCER TIES FOR TO-DAY

MOSS INJURED AND IN HOSPITAL

(By "Referee")

THERE are two interesting matches in the First Division of the Football League down for decision this afternoon, the clash between the much strengthened Navy team and the Fusiliers being the outstanding tie, while Recreio will entertain the Police in what should also produce a stern struggle.

The Police will be without the services of Moss, who is at present in hospital with an injured foot, and Brooks will be seen in his stead on the left-wing, while Willerton, from the junior eleven, will lead the attack.

The main match of the day should see a much strengthened Naval side secure their first pair of points. Hills and Wolferson, who recently returned to Hong Kong from Wei-Hai-Wei, will probably be seen in action as the two full-backs, while Wride will be retained as the pivot, supported on the right and left flanks by Smith and Bower, two excellent players, making a formidable intermediate line against which the Welsh forwards will have a difficult time.

Baxter, one of the Navy's best right-wingers, will also be making an appearance, supported by McCloud, one of the finest shots in the First Division, while Cannell, the Navy leader, will also be on view. It is likely, however, that several newcomers will be brought into the team in order to give the majority of players a rest before their Lai Wah Cup encounter to-morrow against the Civilians.

Remaining Games
In the remaining senior games the East Lances are expected to beat Eastern, while the Rifles, playing away from home, should perform similarly against St. Joseph's, neither of whom are making any team changes.

Kowloon are favoured to beat the Athletic on their own ground, but much will depend upon Knox in the leader's berth. I also hear that Paddy Boyd is contemplating retiring from the game!

NAVY JUNIORS' FINE RECORD IN DANGER

MEET FUSILIERS TO-DAY

STONECUTTERS SHOULD RECORD THEIR FIRST WIN

The Second Division soccer game between the Fusiliers and the Royal Navy on the Causeway Bay ground to-day should be one of the best encounters this season in this division, as both are playing football of a high standard and have so far given an indication that they will finish up near the top.

The Navy team will probably be without the services of Wride and Smith, who will be needed for the senior team, but, with the talent now at the disposal of the selectors, these positions should not be hard to fill.

CLUB RESERVES ON VIEW

Strong Team To Meet E. Lances.

That the committee of the Hong Kong Football Club are not neglecting their youngsters is evident by the arrangement of friendly games for them, and during the past month quite a number of these have been played.

Taking advantage of the ground which will not be used for League football owing to the postponement of their senior team's fixture with the Kowloon Chinese, the Club Reserves (a mixed team) have arranged to play the East Lances reserve team at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

The Club team will be E. Strange; Buttman and Hill; Mathieu, Forrow and Bickford; Himsworth, Leppard, Bell, Stevens and Finlayson.

N.A.E. MACKAY'S XI TO MEET POLICE XI TO-MORROW

The following will represent N. A. E. Mackay's eleven in a cricket match against the Police Recreation Club, Happy Valley, at 2 p.m. sharp to-morrow:

N. A. E. Mackay, R. A. K. Baxter, J. A. Broadbridge, R. A. Barclay, P. C. Mackay, W. L. Mackenzie, H. E. Neve, K. Zimmerman, P. R. Zimmerman, R. D. Lay.

Avery Brundage, chairman of the United States Olympic committee which dismissed several athletes, including Eleanor Holm, Jerrett, the famous swimmer, is here being interviewed aboard the Vulkanian as he returned to America from Europe.

BIG LADIES' HOCKEY MATCH TO-DAY

"Y" AND HONG KONG LADIES MEET

(By "STICKS")

AN exciting ladies' hockey match should be witnessed this afternoon when the "Y" Ladies meet Hong Kong Ladies on the former's ground at King's Park, commencing at 2.45 p.m. sharp. Several newcomers will be making their first appearance for the two teams this afternoon and the "Y" Ladies' team has undergone almost a complete change.

Miss J. Weller has been dropped from the team and Miss W. George will be seen between the sticks, while Mrs. Burke will be seen at right-back instead of Miss P. McCaw, who is under doctor's orders. Miss A. Fowler will revert to her original position at left-back and these two should make a formidable pair, probably the strongest combination in the Colony at the moment.

The "Y" intermediate line will include two newcomers in Miss K. Tonge, who has been promoted from the junior team and who has made rapid strides since last season, and Mrs. Starbuck, at left-half, who is one of the "finds" of the season. The latter knows the game from A to Z and should prove a menace to the visitors' right-wing partnership of Miss Marsh and Miss M. Smalley.

Right-Wing Newcomer
Miss O. Dalziel will be an absentee from the right-wing to-day as she is still under doctor's orders, and her vacancy will be filled by Miss J. Lakeman, a promising junior player formerly of the Central British Schoolgirls' team. Miss S. Dalziel will be at inside-right, while Mrs. M. Read will again lead the attack.

Miss M. Smith, one of the two girls responsible for Hong Kong's Interport victory over Shanghai last February, and formerly of the Central British Association Ladies, will be seen at inside-left in support of Miss M. Westcott.

Experimental Side
The Hong Kong Ladies will be fielding an experimental eleven with Mrs. Lunson between the sticks and Miss Gray, as usual, at right-back. Miss R. Smalley will be at left-back in the unavoidable absence of her sister Miss J. Smalley, who was injured recently, while Mrs. Harrop will make her first appearance at right-half. Miss Glover will be seen as pivot and Miss Ferguson, their left-winger, will be at left-half.

I do not think these three will blend successfully as Mrs. Harrop is essentially a forward and will be wasted in the intermediate line.

Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Prophet are the two newcomers to the attack and will make up the left-wing combine, while Miss Jean Dalziel will lead the attack, supported on the right flank by Miss Marsh and Miss M. Smalley.

The Hong Kong Ladies have distributed their strength in an effort at balance, but I can see several loopholes which I think the "Y" attack will take full advantage of. As the other ladies' teams in the Colony have been considerably weakened, the result of this match, although only a friendly one, will act as a pointer towards the winners of the Cass Clark Cup competition.

The following are the teams:

FINE MATERIAL YET TO BE MOULDED

GODFREY RAMPLING'S PASSING

GREAT FUTURE FOR D. B. PELL

(By J. E. Lovelock)

London, September 30.

IT seems a good time to give a brief review of the past track season in England, stressing not only those who have justified their places among the very best that the country has produced, but also making some mention of those runners in such events as the Public Schools and Junior A.A.A. Championships who show promise of one day stepping into the places of our present champions.

In the sprints our three outstanding men were our Olympic representatives, A. W. Sweeney, C. B. Holmes and A. Pennington. Their consistency throughout was admirable, but on their Olympic form they are scarcely yet up to the highest international standing. It may seem invidious to attempt to separate them, but one cannot help feeling that Sweeney is the strongest, most consistent, and consequently the most formidable.

Holmes, with more training along the right lines, could be at least his equal; while Pennington, in spite of his apparent frailty and greater length of leg, leading to slower starting, has the greatest potentialities, particularly over the furlong distance. Some day he will be a very great quarter-miler!

How to account for our sprinters' lack of success in the big events is not easy, but I cannot help feeling that the foundations of their training were not laid sufficiently firmly, and that they do not realise the tremendous amount of preliminary work necessary for continued performance throughout a long season of high-class competitions.

Youngest Athletes
The younger athletes who caught the eye included the Malvern schoolboy, B. Greathatch, winner of the Public Schools' hundred, K. Richardson, and T. Scother, first and third respectively in the Junior A.A.A. Championships, and yet another Pennington, brother of our Olympic representative.

Some of these should provide us with worthy champions in future years. Coming to the quarter, the long and fierce argument on the relative merits of A. G. K. Brown, G. L. Rampling, and W. Roberts would at last seem settled in favour of Brown. His performances over distances from 100 to 880 were incredible, and we have in him a magnificent example of a man who knows his own mind, forms his own plans, and adheres steadily to them.

The Quarter-Milers
He reaped his reward, one that with sufficient encouragement from the right quarters might well have been a first instead of a second in the Olympics. Roberts demonstrated his great strength, consistency, and fighting spirit throughout, but in Rampling I still feel we had the most beautiful of them all.

Old favourites die hard, and could Rampling have recaptured something of the old careless rapture of his earlier spontaneous efforts we should have seen him produce in straight races a little of what he is now able to give us only in his most inspiring relay turns. His retirement will be a big loss to English sport.

Runner Of Promise
Of the younger ones, none impressed as favourably as did E. J. Scott last season, but in E. J. Chandler, Junior A.A.A. Champion and record holder, we have a runner of promise.

TO-MORROW'S LEAGUE FOOTBALL

The only League football games for to-morrow are in the Third Division, where two of the home teams should win comfortably, though the game between Recreio and the European Police will be worth watching.

ARMY AND CLUB IN GOOD RUGBY GAME TO-DAY

Triangular Tourney Pointer

SIDES ARE WELL-MATCHED

(By "REFEREE")

A very interesting Rugby match should be witnessed on the Seokunpoo ground this afternoon at 4.30 p.m. when the Club first fifteen meet the Army, holders of the Triangular Tournament Trophy, in a friendly fixture.

The Club will be fielding the same backs and halves as last Saturday, when they beat the Royal Navy at the Valley, although there are several changes among the pack, E. P. Humphreys, S. H. Garrod and A. D. Copping being absent, while the newcomers will be I. H. Bradford, a former Interport player, J. Redman and N. E. Clarke.

The Army are fielding a very powerful side and should just about beat the Club team, judging on the display they gave in their trial last Wednesday evening at Prince Edward Road.

Doubtful Starter
Collins, one of the Army second-row forwards, is a doubtful starter as he has not been feeling too well recently, otherwise, with the exception of four players, the team is the same which won the Triangular Tournament last season.

The Army will miss Davies, one of the fastest centre-threequarters in the Colony, who is shortly to undergo an operation for a torn ligament in the shoulder.

A. RICKETTS WINS CHINA GOLF TITLE

Consistency Rewarded
In Long Run
DR. W. E. O'HARA PERFORMS
HOLE IN ONE

Shanghai, October 19.
A. Ricketts of the Hungjiao Golf Club, won the Amateur Open Golf Championship of China with the fine score of 302 for the 72 holes, or seven strokes better than J. W. Harrison's winning score last year.

K. M. Cumming, of the same club, was second with 316, and three players tied for third place with a score of 317, Messrs. B. Kan, J. A. Williamson and D. R. Glass.

Playing steady golf at Seeking-jiao yesterday Ricketts had 157 for the two rounds, easily maintaining the lead he had obtained on the Hungjiao course on Saturday. The scores this year are generally better than last year.

Hole in One

Ricketts was third in 1934, and runner-up to J. W. Harrison last year, when he was beaten by two strokes. During the course of the afternoon round, Dr. Wm. E. O'Hara who had card number 15, did the 12th hole in one, taking a number six iron from the tee for the 157 yard hole.

Conditions yesterday were considerably different from those on Saturday, the longer course, which was in splendid condition, especially the greens and the high wind blowing mitigated against any records being broken.

Prize Winners

At the conclusion Madame Wu Te-Chen, wife of the Mayor of the Municipality of Great Shanghai, presented the prizes won during the competition, and at the request of Mr. R. Bailey, presented Dr. Wm. E. O'Hara, President of the Shanghai Golf Club, with a box of balls for doing a hole in one.

The following were the prize winners:—

A. Ricketts Championship trophy and Cup, best 36 and 18 holes in qualifying round at Seeking-jiao, best 36 and 18 holes at Hungjiao.

J. S. Dickson best 36 holes at Seeking-jiao.

J. C. Dickson, J. A. Williamson and B. H. M. Broomhall best 18 holes at Seeking-jiao.

Defence, Peace And Progress

All the resource and all the energy of the Government, said
Mr. Chamberlain, its spokesman, at the mass meeting of the Conservative Conference last month, are demanded by the circumstances of the time.
He was not upon the defensive.
Confidence well justified resounded through his speech.
The ample fulfilment of anticipations that the confirmation in office of the National Government last year would be followed by a continuance of the industrial recovery was triumphantly demonstrated, but only as the basis of more strenuous and comprehensive effort. It was frankly emphasised that
"the largest programme of expenditure on defence which this country has ever undertaken in time of peace" will be a heavy burden. Mr. Chamberlain is convinced of the adequacy of the rearmament which it will give Britain. The possibility of retaliation by the "terrible striking power" of the new Air Force, he predicted, will sober thoughts of aggression and be a most formidable deterrent to war. But he made it plain that the nation is not advised to rely on armaments alone for the preservation of peace. In vigorous language he declared once again the intention of the Government to work for the strengthening of the League of Nations and the application of the principles of the Covenant and collective security more effectually. There can, of course, be no isolated advance
by us; we have to make sure how far other nations will go.
If we find a willingness to engage in limited regional pacts, and in particular the proposed Western Pact, a way to the appeasement of alarms will be opened.

International unrest is inflamed by economic difficulties.
Mr. Chamberlain was content to glance at British co-operation with France and the United States in minimising the disturbance from the devaluation of the franc, with the hope that it would prove a step towards stability in the world monetary system. But he declared that difficulties of finance and currencies must be dealt with before the world can be tranquil, and promised that the British Government would be ready to do its part in reducing the restrictions which impede
the flow of international trade.
That undertaking does not imply what Free Trade famu-lies, Liberal and Socialist, have been demanding, a change of policy on Imperial Preference.
Mr. Chamberlain, with all the vigour which might be expected from his father's son, insisted upon the supreme value of that principle to the material cohesion and the unity of thought and action of the nations of the Empire.

In the disturbed conditions of the world the steady progress of British industrial recovery is amazing. Mr. Chamberlain may well be proud of

CARTOONClimbed Mt. Shasta
On Horseback

THE only horse ever taken to the top of Mt. Shasta, 14,161 feet, was ridden by Miss Alice Cousins, August 18, 1893, accompanied by William Seen and Tom Watson, both men afoot. While human beings can easily become accustomed to such altitudes, domestic animals cannot. This horse died soon after returning to the foot of the mountain.

"Birthday" Johnson

M. A. A. "BIRTHDAY" Johnson, who conducts an insurance business in Los Angeles, never attempts to remember acquaintances by name, but never forgets their birthdays. In the 11 years since 1925, "Birthday"
had catalogued in his mind a total of over 20,000 birth dates. Instead of calling a person by his name when meeting him in the street or when calling him by telephone, Mr. Johnson greets him by giving his birth date. It is not unusual to hear him greet a group of men: "Hello February 17th, May 21st, January 28th, November 11th," and so on through the crowd.

Value Of Carnations

ALLWOOD Brothers, carnation-
al specialists of Hayward's
Heath, Sussex, England, write me:
"We often wonder whether the great public realize what a tremendous amount of more-valuable-than-gold material is wrung out of the soil in a simple Sussex village each year. The price of gold is about $35.00 an ounce, but the very best fertilized carnation seed as sent out by us in quantities all over the world is worth $700 an ounce, or $11,200 per pound."

SENTENCE ON FUS.
GRONERTUnnecessary To Wait
Till Next Sessions

Sentence on Fusilier William
Gronert, of the Royal Welch Fusiliers, who pleaded guilty at the Criminal Sessions last Monday to charges of malicious razor attacks on three Chinese women in Wanchai on September 13, will be passed at 10 a.m. on Monday next and not at the November Sessions, as originally intended.
This intimation was conveyed
by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, to Mr. Leo D'Almeida, junior counsel for Gronert, at the Sessions yesterday afternoon.
His Lordship said: "Since the day Gronert pleaded guilty I have given very careful consideration to the case, and I have come to the conclusion that it is unnecessary for me to defer sentence as long as the November Sessions.
I am arranging for him to be brought here at 10 a.m. on Monday."

PILOT'S HAT IN PROPELLER

A pilot named Dimmock was demonstrating an aeroplane at Cardiff Airport recently when his hat flew off and caught in the propeller, which snapped. The machine crashed, but the pilot escaped with slight injuries.

the figures, for whatever other forces have been at work there is no doubt that, in his own phrase, confidence was the main spring, and to the creation of confidence the administration of the national finances on sound principles was indispensable. From this progress Mr.
Chamberlain would not have us draw the inference that the Government are satisfied with the condition of the people.
In the return of prosperity he found the authority and the means for large schemes to raise the general standard of welfare and physical development. A comparison not flattering to British pride with the physique of German youth was made to illustrate the need for measures to give England a population of greater vigour.
These, Mr. Chamberlain, avowed, must be manifold and concerned with many phases of national life to be effective.
He foreshadowed a health policy of a scope such as we have never yet known.

SHAKESPEARE'S RUN

Non-Stop Shakespeare for six months is to be Stratford-on-Avon's contribution to the Coronation celebrations.

For the first time Shakespeare's plays will be performed for 25 consecutive weeks in the town of his birth. The first performance will be on Easter Monday, March 29, and the last on September 25.

Attractions for Shakespeare lovers will include a conference on the study of Shakespeare plays
arranged by London University.
Next year's run of Shakespeare plays will not, however, break the Stratford record by a big margin.
This year's Festival season came to an end on September 26.

It had a 24-week run—only two weeks shorter than the projected Coronation Festival.

SUNG THE RAS

Italian judges and lawyers in Addis Ababa, are, it is understood, having a busy time hunting for the defendants who have been cited in the cases now occupying the civil courts. These have just begun to function for the first time since the Italians occupied the town.

Most of the cases which will come up for hearing consist of summons brought by Greek, Armenian, and Russian dealers against Abyssinian chieftains for non-payment of accounts.

A German doctor has summoned one of the former members of the Imperial Government who is now in exile.

A Hungarian furniture dealer has sued another chieftain of $5,000 worth of furniture and curtains.

GREAT SHIPS ACROSS
ATLANTIC
FIFTY YEARS' BUILDING
FOR SPEEDCOMFORT STANDARDS EVOLVED
THE SUPER-LINER

(By T. Walter Williams)

THIS is an era of great ships. In 1907 and broke the records east and west with a speed of 26½ knots, there were 75 engineers and 425 firemen and coal passers, who had to shovel 1,100 tons of coal every 24 hours and rake the ashes out again. Between stoking the grimy, perspiring firemen sat down for a few whiffs from their clay pipes until the automatic signal, which rang every 20 minutes, summoned them to fire again. In her latter days as an oil burner the Mauretania's engine room force was reduced to less than 200 all told, including the engineers.

The Age Of Speed

The speed era on the Atlantic commenced in the early eighties with the advent of the two Guion liners Arizona and Alaska, which were dubbed the "greyhounds" and made the voyage from Queenstown to New York in less than seven days.

These marvels were followed by the Cunarders Etruria and Umbria, which could be counted
upon to dock Saturday morning at the pier below Christopher Street, doing the passage in just over six days. These were all single-screw steamships.

The first twin-screw liners were the City of New York and the City of Paris of the Inman Line, later sold to the American Line. They were picturesque ships, built like great yachts, with three funnels and three masts. They were barque rigged and had clipper bows. They made the run from Queenstown to Sandy Hook in 5 days 15 hours and were the first vessels to steam over 20 knots.

Few of the vessels in the Atlantic trade until then were over 8,000 tons gross. They carried yards on every mast, with sails which were set whenever the wind was favourable,

THE HEEP YUNN SCHOOL

H.E. Lays Foundation Stone

LARGE GATHERING AT TO KWA WAN

The amalgamation of two Church Missionary Society schools, the Fairlea (1886) and the Victoria Home (1887) into the Heep Yunn School, was carried out at To Kwa Wan yesterday afternoon when His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, laid the foundation stone of the new school building with a silver trowel presented to him by Mr. I. N. Chau, the architect.

His Excellency was accompanied by Lady Caldecott and attended by Capt. W. J. R. Cragg, A.D.C., and on arrival His Excellency was greeted by the Chairman, the Rev. E. W. L. Martin, and Bishop Mok of Canton, and introduced to members of the Council. A small contingent of Chinese girl guides, led by Captain Ethel Barker, formed a guard of honour.

Among the others who attended the ceremony were Sir William Hornell, Vice-Chancellor of the Hong Kong University, Mr. G. R. Sayer, Director of Education, Rev. G. B. Updell, and Mrs. Updell, Rev. J. R. Higgs, Dr. Katie Woo, Dr. T. C. Ip, Rev. Lee Kau-leung, Messrs. David Au, C. Y. Kwai, Richard Lee, H. C. Hung and Ng Wah.

After the laying of the stone, the histories of the Victoria Home and the Fairlea School were given by their respective Headmistresses, Miss Hollis and Mrs. Cheung.

H. E. The Governor

His Excellency said:—The laying of a foundation stone is always a solemn moment to the layman. Unless one is a mason by trade one does not on any other occasion in life consciously set a thing in a place where it must stay put for decades or even, it may be, centuries. So much of our daily round consists of ephemeralities and apparent trivialities that we are apt to forget that a great deal of what we do day by day does nevertheless stay put in the moulding of our own characters and in the reactions of others to our good or bad influence. I want every future inmate of this building to bear in mind that, in their teaching and in their learning, they will (whether they like the idea or not) be for ever laying foundation stones. The future tone and value of this school will depend not on any physical stone such as that I have laid to-day but on what each mistress and pupil contributes of solid worth to its moral fabric. It is a Christian school and its builders' instructions are therefore quite plain and direct; they are summed up in the first line of a hymn: "Christ is our corner-stone; on Him alone we build."

A Commemoration

But the stone, which I have just laid, is not only a foundation for the future but a commemoration of the past and present. It commemorates, may I say, a marriage. Two lives of a singular usefulness are to be welded into a broader life of even greater usefulness. The stone is, as it were, the matrimonial altar before which Mr. Fairlea and Miss Victoria Home stand to solemnize their union before God and man; their mutual sacrifice of individual tradition to the call for joint service is exemplified in the surrender by both of their unmarried names. They will henceforth be Mr. and Mrs. Heep Yunn, and they will start their wedded life with the joy and inspiration of each other's golden jubilee. God prosper them!

And just one word in conclusion. Many of you here will have read Mr. Burney's Report on Education in Hong Kong. He suggested that our Educational policy should be such (I quote his actual words) "as to secure for the pupils, first, a command of their own language sufficient for all needs of thought and expression and, secondly, a command of English limited to the satisfaction of vocational demands." I have it from the Vice-Principal of Fairlea that the aim of the Heep Yunn School authorities will be to put this advice into effect. And again I say "God Prosper Them!"

Chairman's Thanks

In his concluding remarks, the Chairman extended the thanks of all present for His Excellency's presence there that afternoon. The proceedings were brought to a close by a blessing from Bishop Mok, after which His Excellency showed much interest in the models and plans of the school before leaving.

"Eula Hoff and Bob Burnett," above, will make their first bow to the Hong Kong public in the Roof Garden of the Hong Kong Hotel on Saturday, November 7.

The case at the Criminal Sessions against Ng Wai-chan, aged 22, Kam Kai-hing, aged 31, and Lo Chun, aged 55, for possession of 23 lbs. of pink mass sufficient to make at least 35,000 heroin pills, 138,750 heroin pills, and one ounce of crude heroin, enough to form the content of another 33,000 pills, was concluded before His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, yesterday. The first two were each sentenced to three years' hard labour, while the third was discharged. Li Sin-ku, aged 44, widow, and Chan Sam, aged 32, unemployed, who were arrested with the others at the time of the raid and who pleaded guilty at the outset, were each sentenced to five years' hard labour.

The Fusiliers may make some changes in the team, but with Sumner, Harrison and Coakley in the forward line, they should do well. Gaisley and Vale are two good backs with strong clearances, while Sammers in goal is safe.

Stonemutter's Should Win. Stonemutter, who meet the Chinese Police, should win their first match to-day. They have not enjoyed the best of luck so far, though their team is no weaker than that which participated in the senior League last year.

A good game should be witnessed between Lyemun and the Rifles, who are best served by Boyd and Wilson. In the forward line, while in the defence Coyle, at back, and Bramwell, in goal, are sound. The Artillery have not won a game yet, but are hopeful. Mackrill, in goal, and Brown and Knight are their outstanding players.

Worthington is another steady defender, and can always be relied upon to give a good account of himself.

Third Division "Tri-Et." In the Third Division the clash between St. Joseph's and Liga Portuguesa should be interesting. J. M. Fernandes, formerly of Recife, has been transferred and may make his appearance between the sticks in place of Quin, who will probably be rested.

The Saints will be without Victor, their captain and left-back, and this has resulted in several positional changes. Hassan will play at centre-half to enable Castro to fill Victor's position, while Elaris will be brought into the team on the right-wing. In the other two games the Engineers and the Fusiliers should beat the Medicals and the Ordnance respectively.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

Subject: "Probation After Death"

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches to-morrow, October 25, will be "Probation after Death."

The Golden Text will be: "The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger." (Job 17: 9.)

Amongst others, the following citations from the Bible will be read:—"Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty: He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." (Job 5: 17-19; I Corinthians 15: 48, 49, 53, 54, 58.)

Triumph Over Death. The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:—

Every mortal at some period, here or hereafter, must grapple with and overcome the mortal belief in a power opposed to God. Through the wholesome chastisements of Love, we are helped onward in the march towards righteousness, peace and purity, which are the landmarks of Science. The way is straight and narrow which leads to the understanding that God is the only Life. It is a warfare with the flesh, in which we must conquer sin, sickness and death, either here or hereafter—certainly before we can reach the goal of Spirit, or life in God. "The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law,"—the law of mortal belief, at war with the facts of immortal Life, even with the spiritual law which says to the grave, "Where is thy victory?" But "when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." M.C.C. BOWLING FLOGGED

Early Advantage Lost

Perth, To-day.

After scoring 497 runs in the first innings of their match against an Australia eleven, followed by early success when they claimed one of the home team's wickets for only 15 runs, the M.C.C. found themselves up against it when Badcock and Horrocks took the score to 293 for 1 before the close of play, being 149 not out and 128 not out respectively.

M.C.C.: 497 (R. E. S. Wyatt 27, Hammond 107, Worthington 69, Fishlock 91, G. O. Allen 43, Copson 10 not out; R. A. Halcombe 4 for 124). Combined Western Australia: 293 for 1 (Badcock 149 not out, Horrocks 128 not out).

Floyd and Kelshaw, the right and left centre-threequarters are every bit as fast as Bidwell and Grieve, their opposite numbers, while Boyling and Jones, the wing-threequarters, are both good tacklers.

Surprise Packet. In Lewis the Army have a surprise packet. He is both fast and has a wonderful swerve and side-step while travelling at top speed and it would not surprise me to see this player make several of the openings for the Army backs. Preece, last year's full-back, will be at scrum-half for the first and, judging on his form in the trial game, will not give Bonnar or Butcher much rope.

The Army pack is a good one, the only newcomer being Watkins, who will hook. One of the most notable absentees from the Army fifteen is Lieut. Rice-Evans, their brilliant centre-threequarters, who is unfortunately still on leave.

Prior to the first fifteen clash, the Club "A" fifteen will meet a team from H.M.S. Medway at 3.15 p.m.

Club 1st XV.—P. C. Frost; H. Van Leeuwen, H. D. Bidwell, W. E. Grieve, G. K. Chadwick; A. E. R. Butcher, J. L. Bonnar; A. F. Walkden, E. A. Watson, A. W. Holden; W. E. Peers, I. H. Bradford; J. Redman, K. A. Munro and N. E. Clarke.

Army 1st XV.—Fus. Barry; Fus. Jones (47), Fus. Kelshaw, Fus. Floyd and Spr. Boyling; Lt/Cpl Lewis and Fus. Preece; Lieut. Lincoln (Captain), Fus. Watkins, Spr. Callinan, Fus. Bobb, Fus. Chaney, Fus. Morgan, Capt. Gillespie and Cpl. Harrison.

Club "A" XV.—M. H. Curtis; D. Hynes, G. Wilson, A. F. Kistner, J. B. Stewart; C. W. Lyle, J. E. Henderson; A. F. Russell, G. S. Chambers, J. S. Dunnett; S. H. Garrod, B. Hynes; M. S. Cumming, H. W. E. Heath, and A. D. Copping.

AL FRESCO FETE

Annual Bazaar To Be Held

FOR ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

On Sunday next, November 1, there will be held the 53rd annual "Al Fresco Fete" in aid of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The work of this Society is well known in the Colony, for it has been carried on uninterruptedly here since 1863, and all the deserving poor, without distinction of race or creed, have benefited by its ministrations. In recent years, owing to increased poverty in Hong Kong, there have been more calls than ever on its help, and it is to provide funds for its good work that the annual Fete is organised.

This year, as last year, it will be held at Chatham Road, Kowloon, near the Rosary Church, and it will remain open from 3.30 p.m. when the formal opening will take place, until 11 p.m. The number of stalls will be greater than before, new additions including those in charge of the Services Branch of the Catholic Women's League, and of University Students of Ricci Hall. New attractions will also be a shooting gallery and an archery contest.

Valuable Prizes

There will be many other games of skill, for which valuable prizes are being offered. Many stalls are offering attractive objects donated by friends and now being sold at bargain prices. At the Wah Yan Photographic Stall there are for sale at very cheap rates Christmas Cards and Calendars for 1937 of exclusive design, very suitable for sending abroad. A tea stall and a "hot-dog" stall will provide light refreshments, and mineral waters and Ovaltine will also be on sale. There will be a continual musical programme, and an attractive scheme of decoration and illumination has been prepared.

No effort has been made to make the Bazaar a success this year, and it is hoped that, in the interest of the poor who are benefited by the work of the Society, it will be generously supported by the public.

Cinema Notes From The Theatres

"WOMEN ARE TROUBLE" — KING'S THEATRE

"Women Are Trouble" is a newspaper story out of the ordinary in every respect and gives the audience the viewpoint on current events that is had by the working newspaper craft. And, most encouraging, it presents newspaper life without exaggeration.

Stuart Edwin performs an excellent task in his characterisation of Matt Casey, a star reporter. Florence Rice, daughter of the newspaper sports authority, Grantland Rice, portrays a girl reporter as newspaper men know the type. Paul Kelly, who "fits in" as city editor, draws a character with whom every reporter is unforgettably familiar.

The picture was produced at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios by Lucien Hubbard, not many years ago one of the most efficient newspaper men in the world. Michael Fessier, also an ex-reporter, wrote the screen play and Richard Blake, another one, wrote the adaptation.

"SUTTER'S GOLD"—ORIENTAL THEATRE

"Sutter's Gold" tells the story of one of the most appealing figures in American annals; a man who built a fortune and was despoiled of it. It tells of the strange twist of fate which left him struggling for justice.

Edward Arnold as Sutter, establishes the colony of New Helvetia and builds a fabulous fortune. When gold is discovered on his estate, the treasure-seekers take his land, buildings, cattle—practically everything. His soldiers and workers have deserted him for the gold fields. As thousands dig riches from soil belonging to Sutter, they thrust him aside ruthlessly.

He carries his fight through the courts; finally he wins, only to lose at last. During three administrations he seeks redress in Washington. When his last mantle is wrapped about him he has become a figure for all to remember with kindly warmth.

Edward Arnold's portrayal as Sutter stands out splendidly. Binnie Barnes, the Countess who tries to bewitch him, is ravishingly provocative. She makes a love idyll in California seem like something absolutely essential to existence.

Lee Tracy contributes an entirely new sort of role for him, and it is highly entertaining. The supporting cast contains literally thousands of players.

"THE WIDOW FROM MONTE CARLO"—STAR THEATRE

This rollicking comedy drama, besides its laughter and love affairs, carries plenty of exciting action, though even this is more or less shot with humour. The characters involve a playboy major, a widowed Duchess, somewhat flirtatiously inclined, her very proper English relatives and her even more proper fiancé; a very rich and persistent widow who is trying to crash society and an American crook who is a fugitive from justice.

Dolores del Rio, as the Duchess, is as beautiful and charming as ever and gives the part a piquant flavour which makes it entirely delightful.

As the woman seeking to crash society, especially that of the Duchess, Louise Fazenda does an excellent job. She plays the part with all the comedy sidelines for which she is famous.

Others in the cast include Colin Clive, Warren Hymer, Olin Howland, Herbert Mundin, Ely Malyon, E. E. Clive, Mary Forbes, Viva Tattersall and Herbert Evans.

"FANG AND CLAW"—MAJESTIC THEATRE

The result of a full year of work, danger and hardship has been condensed into less than two hours that it takes to unroll "Bring 'Em Back Alive" Frank Buck's "Fang and Claw." The noted animal collector spent nine months in the jungles of the Malay Peninsula and northern India, and the balance of the year in travelling and cutting and editing the 100,000 feet of film to its exhibition length.

Here's a cooling thought for a hot day. Sooner than you expect King Winter will be along with this far-trimmed coat that features panels which simulate a tunic. Imperial silver for is used for trimming.

This picture, which is said to be a most worthy successor to the noted animal trapper's preceding cinematic records of his jungle exploits, "Bring 'Em Back Alive" and "Wild Cargo," attains new heights of interest in that it reveals to the public some new secrets of trapping and outwitting the wary birds and animals of almost every known variety, the picturisation being spiced with many hairbreadth escapes of Buck and the members of his expedition. Produced by the Van Buren Corporation and released by RKO Radio, it once more proves that "Nature saves her greatest thrills for Frank Buck."

"DANCING PIRATE"—QUEEN'S AND ALHAMBRA THEATRES

Gay comedy, punctuated with musical surprises, premeates Pioneer Pictures' feature "Dancing Pirate" the first dancing romance ever filmed in the new 100 per cent Technicolor.

The story, beginning with brief action in Boston when that city had not yet got around to enlarging the bean, moves rapidly to early Spanish California and humorously reveals a phenomenon of love. Because of the emotion, one very fastidious decorous and aesthetic young Bostonian becomes a swashbuckling, hard-fighting Romeo and wins the heart of a fiery Spanish beauty.

The title role is in the hands of Charles Collins, the screen's new dancing sensation. The girl is portrayed by Stefani Duma. The comedy is personified mainly by Frank Morgan whose role as the "Alcalde" (Mayor) is said to provide him with opportunities equal to those he capitalised upon in "The Affairs of Cellini."

Musical and terpsichorean highlights include old California Spanish Casinos, and the introduction of a new dance rhythm, Hupango, now the rage in Mexico City.

The cast also has Luis Alberni, Victor Varconi, Jack LaRue and Wm. V. Mong in humorous characterisations. Lloyd Corrigan directed. Robert Edmund Jones designed the colour, and the music and lyrics are by Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart.

handling of entries was well rewarded, for the diamonds failed to break and the squeeze actually was necessary to the success of the contract.

BRIDGE NOTES

Importance Of Timing

By Ely Culbertson

When you show an expert a hand in which a squeeze is effected, the chances are he will ask: "What of it?" Of course, the squeeze is one of the most spectacular plays at the bridge table, but the expert has seen hundreds of them. They are just routine to him.

But mention the word "timing" to him and he is all attention. For he knows there is nothing routine about tackling each of the suits at the proper moment, about conserving the right entries and knocking out the opponent's stoppers, about planning the play to utilise every possible resource.

And it is for this reason that I take special pleasure in presenting a hand played by my friend, Dr. L. H. Shelly, of Norristown, Pa., for not only was his timing excellent, but also he managed to develop a squeeze toward the end of the play.

The response to our appeal has been truly generous and will enable us to mark the tenth anniversary of these outings with additional gifts to the Girls of the Blind Home.

Will those who have offered the loan of cars please note that we would like to start for Shek-O as soon as possible after 3 p.m. and that it would assist the organisers if cars could be at the Blind Home, Pokfulam, a little ahead of time.

COMMUNIQUE ISSUED

DISCUSSION CONTINUED

The Committee agreed that the Soviet letter should be referred to the sub-committee, when the Soviet representative would be asked to elucidate certain aspects of his statement.

In the course of the discussion Lord Plymouth expressed the view that the German reply to the Spanish charges was satisfactory except on two points, on which he asked the German Government to give further elucidation.

On the proposal of Lord Plymouth the Committee agreed that to the Soviet proposal for the Anglo-French control of Portuguese ports could not be considered until the Portuguese reply was received. The Portuguese representative declared that he could not consent to discussion of the subject.

The committee agreed that the sub-committee was to meet this morning to review the general working of the Committee and to consider whether, and in what respects, the non-intervention agreement could be made effective.

The Soviet representative declared that he was willing to reply to the Italian and German allegations forthwith, but it was ruled that the reply should first be submitted in writing.

The Committee agreed to hold the next meeting of the main Committee next Wednesday—Routen.

CONVICT ON PRISON ROOF

Capture With Fire Hose

Newport, I.O.W.

A convict here recently defied the authorities for more than an hour.

The convict is one who received an additional eight-year sentence for participation in the Dartmoor mutiny. During a meal he escaped from the prison hall, taking with him a heavy saucepan and his dinner fork.

He entered the governor's office and scattered papers. Then he went upstairs, threatening a clerk who attempted to stop him, and reached the roof through a trap door, which he bolted after him.

There he tore up slates and put the turret clock out of action. Finally, warders drenched him with a fire hose and he came down and surrendered.
